

Maple Explorer

9 DAYS-8 NIGHTS / VIA RAIL

TORONTO, NIAGARA FALLS, OTTAWA, MONTRÉAL, QUÉBEC CITY

Journey to the land of maple trees to discover Canada's historic heartland. This holiday showcases the British influence on Ottawa's Parliament Hill, national galleries, museums, renowned architecture and historic sites. Then on to Montréal's French Canada with fine cuisine and the birthplace of pure Canadian maple syrup! This holiday is spectacular when the maple tree leaves turn red in the fall.

Day 1 Toronto

Toronto, or its Huron name 'meeting place', has over 100 cultures represented in Canada's largest city. This evening, explore its diversity at your own pace.

Day 2 Niagara Falls

A full-day excursion through the orchard-laden Niagara Peninsula to Niagara Falls is highlighted with a journey on the Maid of the Mist, which takes you to the base of the majestic Horseshoe Falls.

Day 3 Toronto to Ottawa

Board VIA Rail for a train journey to the nation's capital. A leisurely day gives plenty of time for sightseeing.

Day 4 Ottawa

Discover Ottawa from a unique perspective onboard a boat with wheels! Today's tour highlights Canada's capital city and its many interesting landmarks.

Day 5 Ottawa to Montréal

Enjoy Old Montréal with cobblestone streets and fine French cuisine, after you travel by rail to this multi-cultural city.

Day 6 Montréal

A morning sightseeing excursion visits the Nôtre Dame Basilica, Olympic Park and Montréal harbour. Spend the afternoon shopping at your leisure for that special Canadian souvenir.

Day 7 Montréal to Québec City

In 1959, the St. Lawrence Seaway created the final link to the Great Lakes. Journey by motorcoach along this beautiful river to the European charm of Québec City.

Day 8 Québec City

Stroll down the cobblestone streets, take a ride in a horse drawn carriage; a day at your pace to explore.

Day 9 Québec City

Check-out of your hotel and it's off to your next destination.
